Dear DRYADS Partners,

Welcome to the second DRYADS consortium newsletter. Our ambition from the project management group is to gather information in a monthly newsletter to avoid a dense stream of emails with varying importance. For your convenience, we will make it condense and clearly mark the purpose if it is for information (FYI:) or if an action from your side is required (FYA:). We require that you read it through carefully and respond when requested in a timely manner in order to be able to hold this large project and consortium together.
